A BILL

to provide for the reservation in admission of the students belonging to the Scheduled Castes, the Scheduled Tribes and the Other Backward Classes of citizens, to certain educational institutions established, maintained or aided by the Government of National Capital Territory of Delhi and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto.

BE it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the National Capital Territory of Delhi in the Sixtieth Year of the Republic of India as follows:

1. (1) This Act may be called the Delhi Educational Institutions (Reservation in Admission) Act, 2009.

(2) It extends to the whole of the National Capital Territory of Delhi.

(3) It shall come into force with effect from the date of its publication in the official Gazette.

2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(a) "academic session" means the period in a calendar year, or a part thereof, during which an educational institution is open for teaching or instruction in any branch of study or faculty;
(b) "annual permitted strength" means the number of seats, in a course or programme for teaching or instruction in each branch of study or faculty authorized by an appropriate authority for admission of students to an educational institution;

(c) "appropriate authority" means the University Grants Commission, the Bar Council of India, the Medical Council of India, the Bar Council of Delhi, the All India Council for Technical Education or any other authority or body established by or under a Central Act or an Act of the Legislative Assembly of Delhi for the determination, coordination or maintenance of the standards of higher education in any educational institution in Delhi;

(d) "Delhi" means the National Capital Territory of Delhi;

(e) "Delhi Educational Institution" means –

(i) a university established or incorporated by or under an Act passed by the Legislative Assembly of Delhi;

(ii) an institution, declared as a deemed University under section 3 of the University Grants Commission Act, 1956, (37 of 56) and maintained by or receiving aid from the Government;

(iii) an institution maintained by or receiving aid from the Government, whether directly or indirectly, and affiliated to a university referred to in sub clause (i) or a constituent unit of an institution referred to in sub clause (ii) or affiliated to a university, established or incorporated by or under an Act passed by Parliament;

(iv) an educational institution set up by the Government under the Societies Registration Act, 1860(21 of 1860);
(f) “faculty” means the faculty of an educational institution as defined in clause (e);

(g) “Government” means the Lt. Governor of the National Capital Territory of Delhi appointed by the President under article 239 and designated as such under article 239 AA of the Constitution;

(h) “minority educational institution” means an institution established and administered by the minorities under clause (1) of article 30 of the Constitution and so declared by an Act of Parliament or by the Central Government or by the State Government or declared as a minority educational institution under the National Commission for Minority Educational Institutions Act, 2004(2 of 2005);

(i) “Other Backward Classes” means the class or classes of citizens who are socially and educationally backward, and are so determined by the Government;

(j) “prescribed” means prescribed by rules made by the Government under this Act.

(k) “Scheduled Castes” means the Scheduled Castes notified under article 341 of the Constitution;

(l) “Scheduled Tribes” means the Scheduled Tribes notified under article 342 of the Constitution of India in relation to any State or Union Territory, migrated in the National Capital Territory of Delhi due to transfer or movement of their father or Guardian on account of business or service.

(m) “teaching or instruction in any branch of study” means teaching or instruction leading to four principal levels of qualifications at diploma, bachelor (undergraduate), masters (postgraduate) and doctoral levels, in agriculture and allied sciences, architecture, dentistry, engineering, law, management, medicine, nursing, pharmacy, technology, veterinary science or such other branch of study, as may be notified by the Government in the official Gazette;

Reservations of seats in educational institutions.

3. (1) The reservation of seats in admission and its extent in an educational institution shall be provided in the following manner, namely -

(i) out of the annual permitted strength in each branch of study or faculty, seventeen percent seats shall be reserved for the Scheduled Caste;

(ii) out of the annual permitted strength in each branch of study or faculty, the percentage of seats reserved for Scheduled Tribes, shall be prescribed by the Government from time to time but shall not exceed 7.5 percent of the annual permitted strength;

(iii) out of the annual permitted strength in each branch of study or faculty, the percentage of seats reserved for the Other Backward Classes, shall be as prescribed by the Government from time to time.

Provided that the Government may, by notification in official Gazette, specify the percent of total seats to be filled on All-India basis in accordance with the reservation of seats provided under section 3 of the Central Educational Institutions (Reservation in Admission) Act, 2006 (5 of 2007).

(2) The manner of providing reservation to the categories mentioned in sub-section (1) shall be as prescribed.
4. The provisions of section 3 of this Act shall not apply to-

(a) a minority educational institution as defined in this Act;

(b) a course or programme at high levels of specialization, including at the post-doctoral level, within any branch of study or faculty, which the Government may, in consultation with the appropriate authority, notify in the official Gazette.

5. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in clause (iii) of section 3 and in any other law for the time being in force, every educational institution shall, with the prior approval of the appropriate authority, increase the number of seats in a branch of study or faculty over and above its annual permitted strength so that the number of seats, excluding those reserved for the persons belonging to the Scheduled Castes, the Scheduled Tribes and the Other Backward Classes, is not less than the number of such seats available for the academic session immediately preceding the date of the coming into force of this Act.

(2) Where, on a representation by any educational institution, the Government, is satisfied that for reasons of financial, physical or academic limitations or in order to maintain the standards of education, the annual permitted strength in any branch of study or faculty of such institution cannot be increased for the academic session following the commencement of this Act, it may permit by notification in the official Gazette, such institution to defer in one or more courses of study or faculty, the reservation of seats for Other Backward Classes for a specified period or to increase the annual permitted strength over a maximum period of three years beginning with the academic session following the commencement of this Act; and then, the extent of reservation for the Other Backward Classes as provided in clause (iii) of section 3 shall be limited for that academic session in such manner that the number of seats available to the Other Backward Classes for each academic session are commensurate with the increase in the permitted strength for each year.

6. The educational institutions shall take all necessary steps, which are required to give effect to the provisions of sections 3, 4 and 5 of this Act, for the purposes of reservation of seats in admissions to academic sessions commencing on and from the calendar year, 2009.

7. (1) The Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, make rules for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this Act.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:

a. prescription of the percentage of seats reserved for the Other Backward Classes from time to time under clause (ili) of sub-section (1) of section 3;

b. prescription of the manner of providing reservation to the categories mentioned in sub-section (2) of section 3;

c. any other matter which is required to be, or may be, prescribed.

(3) Every rule made and every notification issued under this Act shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made or issued, before the Legislative Assembly of Delhi, while it is in session for a total period of thirty days, which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session immediately following the session or the successive sessions aforesaid, the Assembly agrees in making any modification in the rule or notification or the Assembly agrees that the rule or notification should not be made or issued, the rule or notification shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule or notification.
